We are an independent, non-political organisation run by our members, for our members focussing on promoting artistic and creative quality.

A key aspect of The Fellowship is its huge support of future talent and young creatives keen to make a mark in the industry.

What are the opportunities available to members?

The F.A.M.E. Team members are chosen each year and offered a packed calendar of education and events.

ClubStar is the best place for the under 25s to start their Fellowship career with ClubStar Art Team being the highlight for members.

Colour Project is the ultimate finishing school for colour education promoting supreme colour confidence and everlasting inspiration.

Project X is a once in a lifetime experience on a year-long course that covers all aspects of hairdressing.

Other opportunities

Step Up & Shine is a chance to win a valuable education package crafted to build up the raw potential of a stand out young hairdresser.

The Fellowship Scholarship is a four week, intensive course at the Sassoon Academy that awaits one aspiring young hairdresser each year.

Fellowship events calendar

Fellowship Events are a chance for Stylists, Colourists and Salon Managers/Owners to learn from other professionals within the industry. Each event is organised by our Events Team carefully and precisely to ensure that everyone gets the most out of the day or evening. We bring incredible talent to our stages and it really is a great opportunity to be inspired and meet some brilliant people along the way!

Don't just take our word for it...

...here are just a few of our members explaining why they love being part of The Fellowship.

JAMIE STEVENS
PAST F.A.M.E. TEAM MEMBER

"I joined The Fellowship knowing the potential it would give me to pursue my career goals. It started when I was in The F.A.M.E. Team and that was a real platform for me. The opportunities include Fellowship events and ClubStar membership. Being part of The Fellowship is something I am very proud of"

EDWARD HEMMINGS
BUSINESS EDUCATION MANAGER AND MEMBER

"The Fellowship is exactly as it is described; a sharing of ideas and education by a group of people with the same goals. It is an integral part of my career and what Fellowship is all about!"

SIMON TUCKWELL
CLUBSTAR ART TEAM PROJECT LEADER

"Without The Fellowship I wouldn't be where I am today. The people I have met and the things I have experienced are once in a lifetime. I wouldn't be in the position I am in now without the support of The Fellowship. There's no other organization like it and one I am so proud to be a part of. It is a never ending source of creativity, knowledge and passion."

KAIN LAWRENCE
Q HAIR & BEAUTY

"The Fellowship is an invaluable source for myself and our salon, the ability to come up to London, and mix with some of the biggest names in the industry is an experience that simply cannot be topped. The training and motivation that we all walk away with is of the highest quality, we simply couldn't do without it!"
