

Karine Jackson

Multi-award winner Karine Jackson's talent shines through in everything she does and has made her a leading name in the hairdressing industry. After starting her career in her parents' salon in a small Australian town she came to London, worked at Charles Worthington and then set up her own salon in Covent Garden. Since, she has won London Hairdresser of the Year and been a finalist and nominated for many other fantastic accolades. Karine has even appeared on The One Show, and in glossy magazines because of her industry background and expertise.

From 2017 – 2019 Karine was President of the Fellowship for British Hairdressing which upholds traditional skills while encouraging innovative, progressive and forward-thinking ideas in hairdressing. As well as running her own successful hair and beauty salon, Karine actively inspires the stylists and colour technicians of the future through her passion, knowledge and skills. When not tending to her clients at her salon, Karine travels the world teaching the latest colour techniques using the fantastic Organic Colour Systems which she introduced to her salon in 2007.

